

In 2021

I promise I will not throw any pupil through the window.

I will keep doing my best at work

I won't think I'm still as young as my pupils

I will start a new career as a rock star

I won't quit eating sweets

I promise I won't stop dying my hair .

I will stop talking to my cats

I will keep pretending I'm perfect

I will spill coffee on my pupils tests...

and I will keep saying it was my cat's fault
